Thank you for your commitment as a reader in supporting the liturgical part of Ministry at St. Patrick's. Each of you is to be commended for your dedication and dependability. This schedule takes us to the beginning of the Advent Season. Check both the Saturday and Sunday schedules since most of you have been assigned in both areas. It will be a bit more demanding for you but still only approx. once a month. Since Lectors must now come to the front of church to check that the Lectionary is open to the correct readings and to pick up the Book of Gospels for procession, please also stop into the sacristy and let the Commentator know you are present. Enjoy the summer. Before you know it, Advent will have arrived.
